Web Accessibility Statement

This accessibility statement applies to the website of Dalbury Lees Parish Council https://www.dalburyleesparishcouncil.gov.uk

Using this website

This website is run by Dalbury Lees Parish Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- Change colours, contrast levels, and fonts using browser or device settings
- Zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- Navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- Navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- Listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA, and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet (https://mcmw.abilitynet.org.uk/) has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible:

- Some older PDF documents may not be fully accessible to screen reader software

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018. If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS): https://www.equalityadvisoryservice.com/

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Dalbury Lees Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2 AA standard, due to the non-compliances and exemptions listed below.

Non-accessible content

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

Some PDFs and Word documents published before September 2020 are not fully accessible (for example, they may not be structured for screen readers). We aim to ensure that all new documents meet accessibility standards.

Disproportionate burden

At present, we believe fixing all historical PDFs and scanned documents (such as older meeting minutes and agendas) would be a disproportionate burden under the accessibility regulations. We will ensure that any new documents we publish are fully accessible.

Content that's not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

PDFs or other documents published before 23 September 2018 are not required to be accessible if they're not essential to providing our services. Live video streams are exempt from meeting the accessibility regulations.

What we're doing to improve accessibility

We are:

- Reviewing all new content for accessibility before publication
- Replacing or updating key documents into accessible formats
- Working with our website provider to address any technical accessibility issues
